Agriculture Returns to North Richmond

Stop spending big money on fresh produce!

Come out and help grow, pick, and eat fruits and vegetables in your own backyard.

“Welcome sign at the North Richmond Farm”

BIG NEWS!

Urban Tilth is happy to let everyone know about our new home at The North Richmond Farm. This project will eventually include a full production site, a market stand and cafe, a community commercial kitchen, bike workshop, educational spaces, and displays, small amphitheater and more! On the way to creating a “home space” dedicated to our community and local residents, we are in the beginning stages of construction. We have installed a temporary Office Trailer, a Interim Garden, an Orchard with over 70 fruit trees now!, tool shed, & more to come. We are beginning a new adventure! And you are all invited to join us!

“ Remembrance Altar to honor African American civil rights leaders at Martin Luther King Day”

WHAT HAPPENED?

Urban Tilth has hosted our first annual Martin Luther King Volunteer Day at The North Richmond Farm. January 16th, 2017 was a day filled of remembrance of our civil rights leaders, as we all worked together to build the North Richmond Farm. This day brought 358 volunteers, 3 Remembrance Altars, entertainment, music, local organizations, community leaders, good soul food, & fun. We worked together planting the 1st - 55 fruit trees, painting the Office trailer, creating new medicinal beds, seeding, native plant beds, etc. This was a day that we honored our African American Civil Rights Leaders at our new home!

“Interim Garden at the North Richmond Farm”

WHAT IS GROWING AT THE FARM?

We believe that no one should struggle for food! Right now, in our small interim garden we are producing 80 pounds of fresh produce a week. (mustard greens, collard greens, garlic, swiss chard, cabbage, broccoli, cilantro and more). Anyone who comes out and lends a hand will not leave without bringing home some delicious, chemical free veggies!
